

Authenticity

The degree to which a person (or system) regards an object as what it is purported to be. Authenticity is judged on the basis of evidence.