

Data Dissemination Session

A delivery of media or a single telecommunications session that provides Data to a Consumer. The Data Dissemination Session format/contents is based on a data model negotiated between the OASIS and the Consumer in the request agreement. This data model identifies the logical constructs used by the OASIS and how they are represented on each media delivery or in the telecommunication session.